Public Pet Rules & Release of Liability for all Pet Fest Events SIGN BELOW

1. Animals should be over 6 months of age, not in heat, sociable, non-aggressive, healthy and well groomed. All animals must have current vaccines including Rabies for cats, dogs and ferrets and Parvo and Kennel Cough for Dogs. Consult your vet for additional recommended vaccine protection at a large event with hundreds of animals including shelter animals.
2. All animals exhibited must meet all applicable federal and state laws and regulations.
3. Tamed wild animals are not allowed to participate, only domestic animals are allowed in the event. With the exception of small reptiles and birds bred in captivity such as parrots and lizards. Pet Fest does not assume any responsibility for lost or stolen animals at the show. that in bringing my pet into Pet Fest, I understand that I am doing so at my sole risk, cost and expense and any harm that comes to the animal shall be solely my responsibility; and In attending Pet Fest with my animal(s) and should any injury occur to any person, other animal or property as a result of the behavior of my animal(s) at the Show, whether expected or unexpected, regardless of the stimulus for the behavior (i.e., animal's spontaneous conduct, the conduct of another animal, the conduct of any person or thing, or a combination of any of these), I will be solely liable and be held responsible for any injury or property damage that results there from (including reasonable attorneys fees) and that I will indemnify, hold harmless, protect and defend Creative Edge Marketing and The Spokane Fair & Expo Center, for any and all claims of liability and damages from any injury, property damage, loss, claim, or expense resulting from the behavior of my animal; and to report any and all such injuries immediately to Pet Fest Management.
4. All animals must be leashed 6 foot or shorter (absolutely no extend leashes that can be let out), caged or fully contained at all times (except during competitions in the ring).
5. One pet allowed per handler (must be over 16) at all times while out of cage/pen.
6. Participants shall abide by and observe all laws, rules, and regulations of the State of Washington and the City of Spokane Valley and County of Spokane, and departments thereof and all rules of the Show Grounds.
7. Once an application is accepted - participants shall not be entitled to a refund of any part of any fee.
8. Spokane Interstate Fairgrounds has also designated a special area for dogs to be walked and for 'relieving' themselves. Please be considerate of our venue and clean up after your animals. Bags and trash receptacles will be provided at the area.
9. Participants are required to clean up all animal messes with a plastic baggie and paper towel immediately after an occurrence.
10. Management reserves the right to expel participants if, in Management's opinion, their conduct or presentation is objectionable to the public.
11. Any photos, video, or audio taken by management are the property of Pet Fest and Participants' image or likeness can be used by show management for any form of advertising or promotion.

I certify that my pet has never injured or bitten a person or other pet to my knowledge and I have read and understand the above rules and requirements of participation in Pet Fest and agree to indemnify and hold harmless Creative Edge Marketing & Event Management, Spokane Dog Training Club, The Spokane Humane Society, DRNW, Lilac City Dog training Club, Spokane Fair and Expo Center, event sponsors, employees, volunteers, managers, members and officers, from any and all claims of liability, personnel injuries, losses or damage to property caused by, or arising from the event described herein. I/we execute this waiver voluntarily and with full knowledge of its significance.
